

Adverbs

An adverb answers the questions, How?, When? or Where? about verbs. Many adverbs end in ly when answering the question, How?

Our team won the game easily. How?

Circle the adverb in each sentence. In the book below, tell which question it answers.

Example → My birthday is today.

1. The children played quietly at home.
2. We went to the movie yesterday.
3. My friends are coming inside to play.
4. The child cut his meat carefully.
5. The girls went upstairs to get their coats.
6. The play-off games start tomorrow.
7. The boys walked slowly toward the bus.
8. The teacher said, "Write your name neatly."
9. We ate outside on a picnic table.
